Additional notes about this release:

- Screen recording is only available for exams that use both LockDown Browser and Respondus Monitor.
- Initially, only students using Windows and Mac computers are able to use screen recording. The “beta” designation will be removed when screen recording is available for Chromebooks (3-4 weeks).
- There are currently no plans to offer screen recording for iPad users.
- Institutions with managed devices will need to use LockDown Browser version 2.1.1.00 or later. Students won’t be able to access the exam if the screen recording option is enabled but the LockDown Browser version isn’t current.
